Act No. 27 of 2020*

s. 15

Part 5 – Justices Act 1959 Amended

she knows concerning the offence to which the proceedings relate;

(c) a person specified in the summons, requiring the person –

(i) to attend the proceedings at a time and place mentioned in the summons; and

(ii) as part of the proceedings and for the purposes of evidence, to produce a document or thing in the possession or under the control of the person.

(2) If a person fails to attend preliminary proceedings as required by a summons issued under this section, the magistrate, or justice, conducting the proceedings may issue a warrant requiring that the person be apprehended and brought before the magistrate or justice.

67. Guidance on preliminary proceedings

(1) At any time during preliminary proceedings conducted by a justice, the justice may request that a magistrate give directions in relation to the conduct or finalisation of the preliminary proceedings.

2020
Act No. 27 of 2020*

Part 5 – Justices Act 1959 Amended

s. 15

- (2) A magistrate who receives a request under subsection (1) may give such directions relating to the conduct or finalisation of the preliminary proceedings as the magistrate considers appropriate.

68. Conclusion of preliminary proceedings

On the conclusion of preliminary proceedings, or if preliminary proceedings cannot proceed or proceed further –

- (a) the magistrate, or justice, conducting the proceedings must remand the defendant in custody or admit the defendant to bail to appear before the Supreme Court on a day to be fixed by the Supreme Court; and
- (b) the clerk of petty sessions is to forward the transcripts of all evidence given in the preliminary proceedings, and all endorsed recordings of the statements of affected persons used in the preliminary proceedings, to each of the following persons:
- (i) the Supreme Court;
 - (ii) the Director of Public Prosecutions;

(iii) the lawyer representing the defendant or, if the defendant is not so represented, the defendant; and

(c) the clerk of petty sessions is to forward all exhibits tendered in evidence in the preliminary proceedings to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

69. Defendant may be committed to Supreme Court

A defendant in relation to a charge may be committed to the Supreme Court in respect of the charge whether or not an application for a preliminary proceedings order has been made in respect of the charge.

69A. Prohibition on publishing preliminary proceedings

(1) Unless otherwise permitted by a magistrate or judge, a person must not publish –

(a) information given or produced in evidence in preliminary proceedings; or

(b) an account of the preliminary proceedings; or

(c) any information relating to preliminary proceedings.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 500 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 24 months, or both.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the publication of information, or an account, if –

(a) the prosecutor, or the defendant, publishes the information or account to another person and the publication to that person is necessary for the prosecutor or defendant to effectively conduct his or her case in relation to the prosecution of the offence to which the preliminary proceedings relate; or

(b) the prosecutor publishes the information or account to another person and the publication to that person is necessary in respect of any other criminal proceedings where such matters may be lawfully disclosed.

(3) Subsection (1) prevails over an inconsistent provision in any other Act,
